On July 9, 1896, William Jennings Bryan spoke at the Democratic National Convention:	6. What does Bryan mean when he says that the grass will grow in the cities if the farms are destroyed? <hr/>
“You come to us and tell us that the great cities are in favor of the gold standard; we reply that the great cities rest upon our broad and fertile prairies. Burn down your cities and leave our farms, and your cities will spring up again... But destroy our farms and the grass will grow in the streets of every city in every country...we will answer [the] demand for a gold standard by saying...You shall not press down upon the brow of labor this crown of thorns, you shall not crucify mankind upon a cross of gold.”	7.
